Caleb: "I personally don't derive joy or an impulse to chant boastfully at the news that someone just got two bullets put in their skull -- no matter who that someone is -- but that reaction is inevitable: it's the classic case of raucously cheering in a movie theater when the dastardly villain finally gets his due."

me: dastardly

Caleb: It's kinda like how we cheer in the movie in the movie theater.

Caleb: You know, when we determine that that one guy, that dastardly guy...

Caleb: Like when he finally gets his due.

Caleb: And then we cheer.

me: I love cheering at the theater

Caleb: But I personally don't go to the theater.

me: sometimes I'll stand up and clap when the heroic hero heroically give the dastardly crook a taste of his own medicine

Caleb: You're just a classic case.

Caleb: So I hope I just demonstrated to you that Glenn Greenwald is a giant faggot.

Caleb: And if not...

Caleb: Well.

Caleb: Hm.

Caleb: Well.

me: I mean

me: he does good work

me: and for a commentator, he's not really a faggot at all

me: he is indeed a homosexual

Caleb: Dastardly.
